Election Advertising, LAEA 162 Definitions

- (1) (d) “election advertising” means, subject to subsection (3), the transmission to the public by any means during an election advertising period of an advertising message that promotes or opposes the election of a candidate, including an advertising message that takes a position on an issue with which a candidate or a council is associated, and for greater certainty does not include
 - (i) the transmission to the public of an editorial, a debate, a speech, an interview, a column, a letter, a commentary or news,
 - (ii) the distribution of a book, or the promotion of the sale of a book, for no less than its commercial value, if the book was planned to be made available to the public regardless of whether there was to be an election,
 - (iii) the transmission of a document or the communication directly by a corporation or a group to its members, employees or shareholders, as the case may be,
 - (iv) the transmission by an individual, corporation or group, on a non-commercial basis on the Internet, of the political views of that individual, corporation or group,
 - (v) the making of telephone calls to electors only to encourage them to vote,
 - (vi) advertising by the local jurisdiction in any form, or
 - (vii) the transmission to the public in a local jurisdiction that is not a local jurisdiction for which the advertising message was intended and in which there is no candidate and no vote on a question or bylaw to which the transmission relates;
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (1)(d), “election advertising” includes
 - (viii) (a) canvassing for the benefit of a candidate, and
 - (ix) (b) organizing events where a significant purpose of the event is to promote or oppose a candidate.

Election Advertising Period, LAEA 162 Definitions

- (1) (e) “election advertising period” means
 - (i) in the case of a general election, the period commencing May 1 in the year in which a general election is held and ending at the end of the election day,
 - (ii) in the case of a by-election, the period commencing on the date the by-election is set by bylaw or resolution and ending at the end of the election day, and
 - (iii) in the case of a vote on a question or bylaw, the period commencing on the date the election is set by bylaw or resolution and ending at the end of the election day;
