

SAFE TO APPROACH

Observations:

- Eyes are closed/blinking
 - Whiskers are sideways and drooping
 - Legs are stretched out in front of the pet
-

Observations:

- Ears lay loosely on the head
 - Almond shaped eyes
 - Mouth is loose and the tongue is hanging out
-

Observations:

- Ears are relaxed
 - Eyes are oval shaped
 - All four feet and the animal's stomach are showing
 - legs are relaxed
-

Observations:

- Ear muscles are relaxed
 - White part of the eyes are not visible
 - Mouth is loosely open
 - Tail is relaxed
-

Observations:

- Closed eyes
 - Rolled onto the back with the stomach showing
 - Tail is stretched out and loose
-

USE CAUTION

and let pet decide
to come closer

- Observations:
- Ears held back
 - Dilated eyes
 - Licking lips
-

- Observations:
- Eyes are closed
 - Large yawn
 - Dog on bed/in its own space
-

- Observations:
- One ear is forward and one ear is rotated to the side
 - Starting to crouch
 - All four paws are tucked under the body
-

- Observations:
- Ears are back
 - Head is turning away from what they are watching
 - Holding a toy in their mouth
-

- Observations:
- Muscles at the base of the ear are tight
 - Eyes are in a fixed stare
 - Mouth closed tight
 - Fur starting to puff up
 - Back is starting to arch
-

DO NOT APPROACH

Observations:

- Ears low and back
- White part of the eye is visible
- Mouth is closed tight
- Leaning in the opposite direction from where it is looking

Observations:

- Ears to the side
- Eyes are in a fixed stare
- Furrowed brow
- Whiskers pushed forward with an open mouth

Observations:

- Ears are to the side
- Whiskers are pushed forward and the mouth is open
- Fur on the back and tail is standing up
- All four paws are on the ground with the weight back
- Back is arched

Observations:

- Ears are lifted
- Eyes are focused on something
- Mouth is tight
- Tail held high

Observations:

- Ears are flat/airplane ears
- Direct stare
- Tail curled around body
- Body is crouched